You will learn about

- Fundamental role of public finance in supporting agriculture
- How SDG Indicator 2.a.1 is calculated
- How the Indicator can help monitoring Target 2.a of the 2030 Development Agenda
- Data collection, compilation and reporting process for SDG Indicator 2.a.1
- Role of countries in compiling government expenditure data
Who is the course for?

This course is primarily intended for professionals who play a role in the data collection, analysis and reporting on SDG Indicator 2.a.1, as well as for people with an interest in the process. They include policy-makers, data producers, and professionals in charge of compiling the Government Expenditure on Agriculture questionnaire.

Key partners

This course is part of a series of elearning courses on Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) indicators, developed by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) to support countries in the collection, analysis, monitoring and reporting of the SDG Indicators, under the FAO’s custodianship.

FAO e-learning Center

This course is available through the FAO e-learning Center. Please visit the Center and browse our extensive catalogue in multiple languages. Register once to access over 100 titles. All courses are available as a global public good for free.

How to access the course

1. Go to the e-learning center: www.fao.org/elearning, and select the category “Sustainable Development Goal indicators”
2. Register and log-in with your user name and password.

Registration is fast and easy.