

Introduction to Sustainable Development Goal indicators under FAO custodianship

This short course introduces the process of monitoring progress towards the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). It highlights the role of UN agencies in supporting data collection and analysis, and it presents the SDG indicators under FAO custodianship.

 20 minutes

 Available in English, French and Spanish

Digital badge

You will learn about

- 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development
- Importance of monitoring progress towards the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals
- How FAO and other UN organizations can support countries with data collection, analysis and dissemination
- SDG indicators for which FAO is custodian agency

Who is the course for?

This short course is intended as a quick introduction for all people interested in the process of data collection, analysis and reporting for SDG indicators, with a focus on indicators for which FAO is custodian agency.

Key partners

This course is part of a series of elearning courses on Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) indicators, developed by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) to support countries in the collection, analysis, monitoring and reporting of the SDG Indicators, under the FAO's custodianship.

FAO elearning Academy

This course is available through the FAO elearning Academy. Please visit the Academy and browse our extensive catalogue in multiple languages. Register once to access over 100 titles. All courses are available as a global public good for free.

How to access the course

1. Go to the e-learning Academy: elearning.fao.org
2. Register and log-in with your user name and password

© FAO, 2020
CA8365EN/103.20

[😊] Registration is fast and easy